THE NEWS OF THE WEEK. A Daily Resume of Important Happenings.

Attorney General Hayes, of Kentucky, has been notified by United States District Judge Cochran that Judge Cochran has called upon Attorney General Moody to represent him in the mandamus proceedings pending before the United States Supreme Court to compel Judge Cobb Powers to remand the case of Caleb Powers to the State courts on the ground that the United States Circuit Court does not have jurisdiction.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Dec. 8.—At Hunter Hill, this county, Teeny Crook, aged 55, was burned to death in her home. It is believed her clothing caught fire from the grate. Neighbors saved the house and found her charred remains.

Jackson, Ky., Dec. 8.—Low Nodle Nathan Nagle, Ned Naylor and Mann Campbell, boys ranging from 16 to 21 years of age, were arraigned before County Judge James Hargis on the murder of Bill Neese, two weeks ago.

Representative Littlefield, of Maine, introduced a bill providing a death penalty for an assassin of the president, vice president, or any senator, ambassador or minister of a foreign country to the United States.

Representative Hopkins, of the Tenth Kentucky district, has been declined upon as the Kentucky member of the Democratic Congressional Committee. The delegation will hold a meeting shortly and formally nominate him for the position. In his capacity as a member of the committee, Mr. Hopkins will be in frequent consultation with the chairman and will likely see to it that the Democratic candidates in doubtful Kentucky districts next year will receive some assistance from the committee. Mr. Hopkins is confident that the Ninth district will be redeemed at the next election and a Democrat sent to Washington in place of Representative Bennett.

Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon died Friday at Portland, as a result of a hemorrhage which caused the extraction of four teeth on Thursday morning.

At the time of his death Senator Mitchell was under収onsion and sentence for defrauding the Government in transactions concerning the public lands.

Judge John H. Cooper, of Mt. Sterling, is said to be a candidate to Congress from the tenth, in the coming campaign.

Marsfield, France, Dec. 8.—All horses belonging to the Wolf War show of the 2d William F. Cody were killed here. Although the government veterinaries had certified the gladiators had been entirely castrated by the 2d Col. Cody and his partner, James A. Hayes, decided on this radical measure in order to allay the fears of the farmers regarding the spread of the disease. The maddles, bridles and other articles of the equipment as well as the clothing of the stallions were burned, and the railroad car belonging to the show disintegrated. Col. Cody is now in the United States engaged in purchasing a fresh stud.

Kentucky went Democratic over 5,000 at the election of November 5. And this, too, in face of the fact that a few of the would-be leaders of the party are howling of "disruption," "discord" and "machination."

There are 19 counties still missing, but return from them will only increase the Democratic majority. Estimates made from the vote in these at the last election.

The total vote in the State exclusive of these 19 counties was 176,000. The Democratic candidates received 141,064 votes and the Republicans 135,000. The Democratic majority is 15,000. These figures are official.

In the returns above set out the following counties did not report: Bell, Breathitt, Carter, Clay, Clinton, Estill, Gallatin, Jackson, Jessamine, Knott, Leslie, Lyon, Magoffin, Muhlenberg, Perry, Spencer, Todd and Woodford.

In the election last year this district, no between the Democats and the Republican parties, cast 14,510 votes, and gave a total majority of 50 Democratic. Since the Hepburnian vote was materially decreased and the Democratic vote correspondingly increased in the recent election in these counties, it is safe to estimate 2,000 majority in this territory, which will make a Democratic majority of 15,000 in the State.

In addition to this splendid showing and splendid endorsement of the Democratic State administration, the Democratic will have a greater majority in the Legislature on joint ballot than in many years. The rank and file of the party through the length and breadth of the Commonwealth with one voice has given its instrument to the work of the Democratic administration, despite the springing of certain malcontents and appointed office grafters. The small majority raised up for the Hepburnians shows that this, like more eloquent words could be said, but more appreciative could be done.

which the Democrats, as the people of Kentucky, have given a splendid endorsement of former J. C. W. Bowman and his able assistants.

Concerning Jews.

Israel Zangwill, on a visit to the United States some years ago, made several addresses, in the course of which he coined the following epigrams:

The Jews had no country of their own. They could not possess the land of their fathers in reality. So they made a portable Palestine. They carried it wherever they went. This was a spiritual country. It could not be assailed by their oppressors.

There have been two conceptions of the Jew. One that he leads money and wants it back again the other that he dwells in old clothes. The truth is, Jews have been everywhere.

They have been everywhere except Rome of Rome, and they have come near to that. If they dwell in old clothes it was because papal decrees forbade them trading in anything else but old clothes and salt.

The following have been recently paraded from the penitentiaries:

George Davis was sent up from Carter county on a charge of murder and sentenced to serve five years. He has served four of this and had a good record as a prisoner and was sent to the State of Illinois. Stone of Missouri, and Phillips of Washington. The Representatives are James Stanley, Smith S. Hinkson, Trimble, Gilbert and Bennett, of Kentucky; Unsworth of Alabama; Champ Clark, of Missouri; Sladey, of Texas, and Smith of Ar-

They are indeed the wheelhorses of the old party.

For the first time in many years there are few native Kentuckians in Congress. The last comprises R. M. Tamm, and Blackburn, Culver, of Illinois; Stone of Missouri, and Phillips of Washington. The Representatives are James Stanley, Smith S. Hinkson, Trimble, Gilbert and Bennett, of Kentucky; Unsworth of Alabama; Champ Clark, of Missouri; Sladey, of Texas, and Smith of Ar-

MRS. WILLIAM O'BRIEN DEAD

GLOUCESTER, W. Va., Dec. 15.—Mrs. William O'Brien died yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. She had been ill for several days with typhoid - pneumonia and while for several days past her condition was alarming the end came as a great shock to the family and friends.

William O'Brien, cashier of the Bank of Williamson and editor of the Southern West Virginian, by whom he is survived as well as by son Fred W. (the editor of this paper) and his wife and two daughters, Myrtle and Mrs. A. O. Scott.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, of which Mr. O'Brien was a faithful member.

Friday immediately after the ashes of the deceased was taken to Louisville, Ky., for interment in the family burying ground near there.

The bereaved family and a great many sympathetic friends accompanied the remains.

The body was accompanied by the husband and other members of the family who arrived here Friday afternoon.

It was not by friends and carried to the old See bistro ground where a few weeks before her death it was arranged to cross the river.

It was a week's walk to her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Brown.

That she met with the accident which was probably the cause of her death.

She through some misfortune fell into the water and the cold which developed into pneumonia.

This resulted fatally, as above stated.

Miss O'Brien was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. See and had numerous relatives in this vicinity.

She was a more excellent woman than any man and will meet the requirements of the place.
